

Contributions Support Progress on Many Fronts

The year 2004 was one of historic advances for the Thomas Jefferson Foundation and its dual mission of preservation and education.

Through the extraordinary leadership and support of our donors, the Foundation concluded its most ambitious fund-raising campaign, Jefferson Lives: A Campaign for Monticello in the Twenty-first Century, 10 months ahead of schedule. Announced in June of 2000 with a goal of reaching $100 million by April 2005, this all-inclusive campaign was designed to raise funds to expand Monticello's research, education, and publications programs; to support restoration, preservation, and interpretive projects; and to enhance the experience of Monticello's visitors.

The Foundation realized a number of other noteworthy accomplishments throughout the year, as part of and in addition to Jefferson Lives. These included launching a digital archive of data about artifacts from archaeological digs at Monticello and other sites in the Chesapeake region; surpassing the 25 million mark in all-time visitation; acquiring Jefferson's Montalto; receiving the largest gift in the Foundation's history, a $15 million commitment from Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith of Arlington, Va., to endow the Robert H. Smith International Center for Jefferson Studies, which was renamed in honor of the contribution; awarding the first two Barringer Fellowships for Teachers of American History; making significant progress on the restoration and reinterpretation of Monticello's dependencies; and completing the first volume of The Papers of Thomas Jefferson: Retirement Series.

On these pages we gratefully list the individuals, foundations, corporations, and organizations whose gifts to Monticello during 2004 made possible these and other accomplishments. Thanks to the generosity of these donors, the Foundation achieved $1,709,112 in unrestricted support for its operating budget and $8,938,879 in total gift income.

As we continue to promote and preserve Monticello and the ideas and ideals of Thomas Jefferson, we remain grateful for the partnership and support of our friends and contributors.

The Monticello Fund

The Thomas Jefferson Foundation gratefully recognizes the donors, at all levels, who made gifts to the Monticello Fund from Jan. 1 through Dec. 31, 2004.
