

Saunders Takes Office as Chairman of Foundation Board

Thomas A. Saunders III of New York has begun his tenure as chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Thomas Jefferson Foundation.

Saunders, formerly vice chairman, succeeded Brenton S. Halsey of Richmond, whose term on the board expired Dec. 31, 2001. Halsey is now an Emeritus Trustee.

Taking over for Saunders as the board's vice chairman is Rebecca W. Rimel of Philadelphia.

The board's new treasurer is Jeffrey C. Walker of Wilton, Conn. He replaced Albert D. Ernest, Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla., who remains a member of the board.

Hunter J. Smith of Charlottesville has retained her position as secretary.

The new officers assumed their duties Jan. 1.

Saunders is founder and general partner of Saunders Karp and Megrue, a New York private equity firm. The holder of a bachelor's degree from Virginia Military Institute and a master's from the University of Virginia's Darden Graduate School of Business Administration, he sits on the Board of Visitors of UVa. A member of the TJF board since 1997, Saunders also serves as chairman of Monticello's current fund-raising effort, Jefferson Lives: A Campaign for Monticello in the Twenty-first Century.

Rimel is president of The Pew Charitable Trusts, one of the largest charitable foundations in the country.
