Harvest happening

NEARLY 3,000 people made their way to the top of Montalto on Sept. 22 for the third annual Heritage Harvest Festival at Monticello.

The event, sponsored by the Thomas Jefferson Foundation and the Southern Exposure Seed Exchange, celebrated local food, heirloom plants, and sustainable gardening.

Tastings, workshops, demonstrations, talks, and music performances were among the day’s activities.