VOLUME 25, NUMBER 1

Maira Kalman's New Jefferson Book

"If you want to understand this country and its people and what it means to be optimistic and complex and tragic and wrong and courageous, you need to go to Monticello."

—MAIRA KALMAN

Renowned artist, illustrator and writer Maira Kalman has written a new children's book, Thomas Jefferson: Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Everything. Featuring

Kalman's original and vibrant illustrations of Monticello's house and grounds, the book explores the history of Thomas Jefferson and the people who lived and worked on the 5,000-acre plantation. Maira Kalman's Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Everything is available in-store and online at www.monticelloshop.org
