

PREPARE FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Holidays are a time for family, friends and celebrations – or in Jefferson’s word, “merriment!” This holiday season, discover The Shop at Monticello for one-of-a-kind gifts, locally made gourmet foods and handcrafted, exclusive items, many harvested at Monticello. Shop online or visit us at The David M. Rubenstein Visitor Center; free parking, no admission required! Every purchase supports Monticello.

Look for these items and those featured on the cover in-store or online at

1

Heirloom Seed Box

We filled our authentically designed button box with eight seed packages from the Thomas Jefferson Center for Historic Plants.

2

Dome Candle Snuffer

How clever! A candle snuffer shaped like the legendary octagonal dome at Monticello.

3

Poplar Bowl

Handcrafted from the majestic poplar trees that once surrounded Monticello, this bowl is perfect to serve with or use as a centerpiece.

4

The Jefferson Cup

When Jefferson designed his own cups, he probably never imagined how popular they would become! Simple and versatile, they are as suitable for serving a festive punch as they are for holding cufflinks or paper clips.

5

Leather Rebellion Flask

“I hold it that a little rebellion now and then is a good thing...” Our Italian leather flask is a unique gift with a dash of history.

6

Best of Monticello Gift Box

A curated collection of our best locally made foods includes raw honey infused with orange, fig preserves, a special Monticello coffee blend and more! A variety of gift boxes are available in-store and online.

7

Monticello Tea Towel

Richly illustrated with the architectural elements of Monticello’s West Front, this tea towel is the perfect combination of form and function.

8

Octagonal Tea Chest

In Jefferson’s time, tea was an expensive social necessity. A reproduction of an 18th century original, this caddy is complete with working lock and foil-lined interior.

9

Declaration of Independence Tote Bag

Writing with a quill pen at a desk he designed, Jefferson went through many drafts of the Declaration. On heavy cotton canvas we have printed Jefferson’s famous words and edits.

10

Sugar Maple Serving Board

This exquisite serving board is crafted from the Sugar Maple trees that flanked the walkway to Monticello’s south terrace.
